

October 26, 2005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Robyn Langlois Soffera 919-667-2565 office
robyn.soffera@duke.edu

WAL-MART EXECUTIVE ADDED TO DUKE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL & HEALTH CENTER NATIONAL BOARD OF ADVISORS

DURHAM, N.C.— Duke Children's Hospital & Health Center National Board of Advisors selected Lance de la Rosa of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. to join the board in October.

de la Rosa will serve on Duke Children's National Board of Advisors from October 2005 until May 2008. As ambassador and advocate of the hospital he will travel to various events during his term spreading the message of Duke Children's Hospital & Health Center.

de la Rosa joins a prestigious list of business leaders from the Triangle community and across the United States. The Duke Children's National Board of Advisors work year-round on behalf of the young patients at Duke Children's Hospital & Health Center to ensure philanthropic goals are reached.

de la Rosa is a regional manager with Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. where he started as an hourly associate in 1987. de la Rosa holds a degree in music education from East Tennessee State University. He is a member of the Wal-Mart international team and spent time in Germany as a district manager.

-MORE-

Background on the National Board of Advisors for Duke Children's Hospital & Health Center:

The primary purpose of the Board of Advisors is to oversee and promote all activities intended to secure philanthropic support for Duke Children's. This includes but is not limited to philanthropy development, advocacy/outreach and strategic planning in development and marketing.

All members of the National Board of Advisors include:

- Robert Mercer of Irvine, Calif., vice president and general counsel, Mazda North American
- Hugh Allen of Cary, N.C., senior vice president of Wachovia Bank
- Frank and Louise Chut, Ph.D. of Fearington Village, N.C., retired
- Norman Cooper of Aventura, Fla., retired
- Johnny Dawkins of Bahama, N.C., associate head coach for Duke Men's Basketball
- S. Scott Edwards of Rogers, Ark., former regional vice president with Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.
- E. Stephen Edwards, Ph.D. of Raleigh, N.C., retired
- Earle Finley of Raleigh, N.C., founder, Evergreen Properties
- Pamela Gregg Foxworthy of Alpharetta, Ga.
- John Gabriel of Paramus, N.J., president, Gabriel Realty
- Federico van Gelderen of Raleigh, N.C., former publisher of Que Pasa
- Mike Gminski of Charlotte, N.C.
- Ardie Gregory of Raleigh, N.C., vice president and general manager, WRAL-FM
- Towney Kennard Jr. of Raleigh, N.C., vice-president, strategic alliances, IBM
- Richard Lake of Pinehurst, N.C., retired
- J. Keith Morgan of Stamford, Conn., senior vice president of general counsel, GE Commercial Finance
- Arthur Pappas of Durham, N.C., chairman and chief executive officer, A.M. Pappas & Associates, LLC
- Lance de la Rosa of Bentonville, Ark., regional manager of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.
- Donald H. and Mary Tucker of Raleigh, N.C., Don- lawyer/partner, Smith, Anderson, Blount, Dorsett, Mitchell & Jernigan
- Lars von Kantzow of Cary, N.C., TriCrown Consulting, Inc
- Frank and Andrea Ziegler of Bernardsville, N.J.

-MORE-

About Duke Children's Hospital & Health Center:

Duke Children's Hospital & Health Center, located in Durham, N.C., is nationally ranked among the best in pediatric health care programs. Caring for children is our number one priority, from routine check-ups and immunizations to the treatment of life-threatening injuries and illnesses. At Duke Children's, we provide hope and the most-advanced health care available. We offer innovative procedures including stem cell and bone marrow transplants as well as a variety of support services for our patients and their families. For more information please visit www.dukechildrens.org.

-###-