DURHAM, N.C. (MARCH 4, 2005)—Duke Children's Hospital & Health Center today announced its third annual design contest for the Duke Children's Classic poster. Duke Children's invites all children aged three to 18 to participate in the contest.

The posters will be used throughout the community to promote the Duke Children's Classic. The winners of the contest will be invited to meet Jeff Foxworthy during the Duke Children's Classic, May 21-22. The winning entries will be unveiled to the Classic sponsors and celebrities at Jeff and Gregg Foxworthy's Pairings at the Washington Duke Inn on Friday, May 20. A gallery of entries will be on display at Crabtree Valley Mall (Raleigh), Northgate Mall (Durham), The Streets at Southpoint (Durham) and Raleigh-Durham International Airport. Poster entries received from pediatric patients or children of Duke employees will be displayed in front of Duke North Cafeteria during the month of May.

Posters must be golf-related, no larger than nine inches by 12 inches and submitted by April 15, 2005 for judging. Entries should be sent to Sarah Dickens at 512 S. Mangum Street, Suite 400, Durham, N.C. 27701.

About Duke Children's Hospital & Health Center:

Duke Children's Hospital & Health Center, located in Durham, N.C., is nationally ranked among the best in pediatric health care programs. Caring for children is our number one priority, from routine check-ups and immunizations to the treatment of life-threatening injuries and illnesses. At Duke Children's, we provide hope and the most advanced health care available. Offering innovative procedures including stem cell and bone marrow transplants as well as a variety of support services for our patients and their families, Duke Children's cares for children from around the world.
