Local Students Participate in the Fourth Annual Duke Children's Classic Poster Contest

Durham, N.C.- In art classrooms across the state children have spent the last month diligently creating Jeff Foxworthy and golf-themed posters for the fourth annual Duke Children's Classic Poster Contest. The hard work paid off for two winners: Nora McPeak, the nine and older age group winner, a student at Wakefield Middle School in Raleigh; and Gabby Farr, the eight and younger age group winner, a student at Bellamy Elementary in Wilmington. Nora and Gabby will be honored at Jeff and Gregg Foxworthy's Pairings Party at the Washington Duke Inn on Friday, May 19, where their artwork will be revealed to the celebrities and sponsors at the 33rd annual Duke Children's Classic.

The response to the contest was wonderful. The dedication kids have for helping other kids is apparent. All of the submissions are helping promote the Duke Children's Classic celebrity golf tournament, which benefits the Duke Children's Hospital & Health Center, and are displayed at either the Northgate Mall or the Duke University North Cafeteria.

The Duke Children's Classic will take place May 20-21 at the Duke University Golf Club. Admission is free and open to the public. For a schedule of events and a list of celebrities attending visit www.dukechildrens.org
