

SLOAN FINANCIAL GROUP'S CEO MACEO SLOAN NAMED TO DUKE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL & HEALTH CENTER NATIONAL BOARD OF ADVISORS

Sloan Will Serve on Duke Children's National Board of Advisors Executive Committee

DURHAM, N.C. – November 8, 2011—Duke Children's Hospital & Health Center, a nationally-ranked pediatric academic medical center, announced today the addition of Maceo K. Sloan of Durham, N.C., to the Duke Children's National Board of Advisors Executive Committee. Sloan joins a prestigious list of business leaders from the Triangle community and across the nation, and will serve on the board effective November 3, 2011.

Duke Children's National Board of Advisors members give their time and resources to Duke Children's, ensuring its placement among the top pediatric programs in the United States. Sloan attended Duke Children's National Board of Advisors quarterly board meeting on November 3, 2011 in Durham, N.C. The meeting coincided with the 2011 Duke Children's Holiday and All-Occasion Card Program kick-off.

“Maceo's strong leadership and deep-rooted community involvement in Durham and surrounding areas make him a vital member to our National Board of Advisors,” said Susan Glenn, Executive Director, Duke Children's Hospital Office of Development. “We're so pleased to announce the newest addition of Maceo to our growing team of leaders.”

Sloan is Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Sloan Financial Group, Inc., Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, and Chief Investment Officer of NCM Capital Management Group, Inc. and NCM Capital Advisers, Inc. In addition to Duke Children's, Sloan has served as a CREF Trustee since 1991 and as Chairman of the Board since 2009. He is also a member of the Board of Directors for the SCANA Corporation, and has served on Duke University's Board for the Center of International Studies. Sloan received a Juris Doctor degree from North Carolina Central University, cum laude; Masters of Business Administration from Georgia State University, with honors; and a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration and Economics from Morehouse College. He lives in Durham with his wife, Victoria A. Treadwell.
