

FOOD LION PRESIDENT CATHY GREEN BURNS NAMED TO DUKE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL & HEALTH CENTER NATIONAL BOARD OF ADVISORS

Green Burns to Serve Leadership Role on Duke Children's National Board of Advisors Executive Committee

DURHAM, N.C. – November 8, 2011—Duke Children's Hospital & Health Center, a nationally-ranked pediatric academic medical center, announced today the addition of Cathy Green Burns of Davidson, N.C., to the Duke Children's National Board of Advisors Executive Committee. Green Burns joins a prestigious list of business leaders from the Triangle community and across the nation. In this capacity, Green Burns will chair a major fundraising initiative that will expand programs and services at Duke Children's.

"I look forward to serving as an active member of the Duke Children's National Board of Advisors," said Green Burns. "I have always had a strong passion for health and wellness, especially focused on children's needs. I'm honored to be part of a nationally-recognized leader in children's health."

Duke Children's National Board of Advisors members give their time and resources to Duke Children's, ensuring its placement among the top pediatric programs in the United States. Green Burns attended Duke Children's National Board of Advisors quarterly board meeting on November 3, 2011 in Durham, N.C. The meeting coincided with the 2011 Duke Children's Holiday and All-Occasion Card Program kick-off.

"We are grateful for strong leaders like Cathy, who are the foundation of our board," said Susan Glenn, executive director, Duke Children's Hospital Office of Development. "Cathy's energy and enthusiasm for children's health makes her a great advocate for Duke Children's."

Green Burns is president of Food Lion LLC, a subsidiary of Brussels-based Delhaize Group and one of the largest supermarket companies in the United States, which affiliates include Food
